PRESS RELEASE

Product Recall Information Notice

EFET was informed through the Rapid Alert System for Food and Feed (RASFF) of the European Union, about the distribution of almond crumb, originated from Spain, in which high concentration of ochratoxin A was detected.

The implicated product is "Almond crumb 250 gr. BioVita" (in Greek: "Αμύγδαλο Ψίχα 250 Γρ. BioVita"), with Lot Number PO014981-01 and expiry date 24-10-2013, which was distributed by the company "BIO VITA AEE" (in Greek: "BIO VITA A.E.E."), (Glyka Nera Attikis) in total amount equal to 200 kg.

EFET requested the immediate recall/withdrawal of the total of the lot of the above product from the company. Relevant controls are in progress.

It is especially stressed out to the consumers, who have in their possession the aforementioned product (photo given below), not to consume it.
